The ultimate pre-auction checklist:

Correct auction start and end dates.

The auction close setting is set up correctly.

The donation button is activated.

The Stripe account is created and configured.

The platform visuals are personalized.

The items are created and reviewed, free of errors.

The partners are created and associated with their items.

The list of partners is created in order of importance.

Users have the information necessary to access or create an account.

The display on the giant screen is tested and functional.

The wireless (Wi-Fi) network capacity tests are conclusive.

The volunteers have their assistants access.

The volunteers have functional and charged devices.

Additional charging equipment is available.

The action plan for the auction is available to all stakeholders.

The messages for the messaging system are prepared.